

YORK CYCLE RALLY 1945 2015

The York Rally returns to the Knavesmire: 20 - 21 June 2015

The York Rally is an annual gathering of cyclists on the Knavesmire in York. Over its history the event has existed under names including The Grand All-Yorkshire Cyclists Rally, the CTC Rally, and the York Cycle Show. It ran for almost 70 years since its foundation in 1945 until its temporary demise after the 2012 event. Now after much (ongoing) fundraising a group of independent volunteers have revived the Rally. The 2015 York Rally will feature:

- Free entry!
- Grass-track racing and roller races for spectator-friendly action.
- Displays and family-friendly activities from a wide range of cycling organisations and clubs, who are invited to exhibit free of charge.
- A 'Trade Village' of cycling exhibitors, who will be invited to exhibit at very affordable rates.
- Rides for all abilities, in and around lovely York and Yorkshire.
- Campsites for tents and for caravans/motorhomes. Earlybird discount bookings are now available, online and by post.
- Much more including many much-loved features from past Rallies.

Full details are on the website. To enquire about exhibiting, please email the organisers on: info@yorkrally.org
