

YORK CYCLE RALLY 1948 2015

*A Grand Weekend of Cycling for All
York Knavesmire: 20 - 21 June 2015*

The York Rally returns this summer to the Knavesmire in York! Originally The Grand All-Yorkshire Cyclists Rally, then the CTC Rally, and recently the York Cycle Show, it ran for almost 70 years since its foundation in 1945 until its temporary demise after the 2012 event. Now after much (ongoing) fundraising a group of independent volunteers have revived the Rally.

The 2015 York Rally will feature both traditional attractions and exciting new features: come along for a grand day out with your family. There'll be masses to see and do whether you cycle already or not!

- Free entry to both site and trade show!
- Displays and family-friendly activities from a huge range of grassroots cycling organisations and clubs, who are being invited to exhibit free of charge.
- The 'Pedal Powered Invention Convention' with amazing bike-powered sound systems, pedal driven power tools, high capacity cargo bikes and more!
- National grass-track and Eleconline Summer Series Yorkshire Cyclo-Cross Association racing for spectator-friendly action.
- Rides for all abilities, in and around lovely York and Yorkshire, including a good selection of short, traffic-free rides for families.
- Campsites for tents and for caravans/motorhomes: book online or by post.
- A 'Trade Village' of cycling exhibitors.
- And more including the Auction Sale for secondhand bikes and bits, and the much-loved Saddlebag Sale cycle jumble, a bar and live music from veteran folk band The Foresters on Saturday night, on-site catering to suit all tastes, and more!

Latest details on the website, phone 0746 732 1443 or email info@yorkrally.org

www.yorkrally.org

YORK CYCLE RALLY 1948 2015

*A Grand Weekend of Cycling for All
York Knavesmire: 20 - 21 June 2015*

The York Rally returns this summer to the Knavesmire in York! Originally The Grand All-Yorkshire Cyclists Rally, then the CTC Rally, and recently the York Cycle Show, it ran for almost 70 years since its foundation in 1945 until its temporary demise after the 2012 event. Now after much (ongoing) fundraising a group of independent volunteers have revived the Rally.

The 2015 York Rally will feature both traditional attractions and exciting new features: come along for a grand day out with your family. There'll be masses to see and do whether you cycle already or not!

- Free entry to both site and trade show!
- Displays and family-friendly activities from a huge range of grassroots cycling organisations and clubs, who are being invited to exhibit free of charge.
- The 'Pedal Powered Invention Convention' with amazing bike-powered sound systems, pedal driven power tools, high capacity cargo bikes and more!
- National grass-track and Eleconline Summer Series Yorkshire Cyclo-Cross Association racing for spectator-friendly action.
- Rides for all abilities, in and around lovely York and Yorkshire, including a good selection of short, traffic-free rides for families.
- Campsites for tents and for caravans/motorhomes: book online or by post.
- A 'Trade Village' of cycling exhibitors.
- And more including the Auction Sale for secondhand bikes and bits, and the much-loved Saddlebag Sale cycle jumble, a bar and live music from veteran folk band The Foresters on Saturday night, on-site catering to suit all tastes, and more!

Latest details on the website, phone 0746 732 1443 or email info@yorkrally.org

www.yorkrally.org

